Inside Criminal Minds IV: Sex Offenders in our Community (HSC 1861)

February 3rd, 2012 from 8:30 am - 4:00 pm

Location: Baxter Hood Center on the campus of York Technical College

This training is an amazing opportunity to...

- Learn directly from the Sex Offenders (SO) themselves!
- Understand why SO offend
- Gain knowledge in how to protect your family and community
- Separate SO Myths from Facts
- Identify the different agencies who supervise and monitor SO
- Develop an understanding of the evidenced based treatment practices used with SO
- Learn the difference between developmental issues and predatory behavior in teens

Applied for: SC LPC, LMFT, School Psychologists and MSW, SC Bar Association CLEE, SC Criminal Justice Academy, Nurses, Victims Advocates and DSS. Also, 1.5 hours of Legal Ethics!

Cost: $89.99

(lunch & snacks included)

The Presenter:

Ben Motley, MA, CCFC, CCSOTS, is a Clinically Certified Forensic Counselor, and a Clinically Certified Sex Offender Treatment Specialist. Prior to starting Three Trees Center for Change,

Ben supervised court diversion programs and worked as a mental health therapist in residential treatment facilities and community mental health agencies. Ben is an active member of the South Carolina Coalition against Domestic Violence and Sexual Abuse, has been awarded clinical membership in the internationally recognized Association for the Treatment of Sexual Abusers, and is certified by the South Carolina Department of Social Services to supervise and facilitate batterer treatment.

Ben completed his Masters in multicultural education, further graduate work in clinical psychology and is now working on developing the Stop, Drop and Think forensic counseling model, that emphasizes the use of evidence based practices, accountability and community teamwork in working with offenders.
